Salt River Indian Community

The Salt River Indian Community has a small-town feel, a big-city address and over 15 places to play! The Community's Talking Stick Entertainment District is the perfect place to enjoy the beauty of the Sonoran desert while creating adventurous memories. Breakfast can be enjoyed while basking in the sun and taking in picturesque mountain views, rejuvenation can be achieved by walking among butterflies at America's largest conservatory and Sonoran desert inspired spa treatments can be paired with spectacular sunrise and sunset views. Play commences when you tee off at one of two golf courses where each hole showcases views more spectacular than the last! Enjoy a hearty feast while cheering on your favorite knight in games of skill at Medieval Times Arizona or take on your friends at Octane Raceway & Mavrix where 45 MPH kart racing, laser tag and bowling all await you!

Take a moment to soak in the serenity of the area at the USS Arizona Memorial Gardens at Salt River, which honors the brave individuals that served aboard the USS Arizona during the attack on Pearl Harbor. The Salt River Indian Community received a large piece of the USS Arizona boathouse and built the Gardens around it, with over 1,500 columns representing each life stationed aboard the ship on December 7, 1941.

Spend some time additional time discovering the O'odham and Piipaash, the people who call this area home, by visiting art installations around the Talking Stick Entertainment District and the Huhugam Ki Museum in the heart of the Community. Enjoy frybread at a local tailgate café or visit the Roundhouse Café and visit with the locals. If socializing is your sport, stop at TopGolf or head over to Talking Stick Resort and enjoy live casino gaming, outstanding food, and nightly entertainment. Whether you are visiting for a day, or two, the Salt River Indian Community has an adventure waiting for you!
